LET'S LOOK AT THE FACTS

The day of the Jack-of-all-trades is past! We are enjoying an era of specialization.

Secondary school graduation and a general Arts course, although they provide an excellent cultural and educational background, do not, in themselves, provide the tools or the "know-how" to earn a future livelihood. Additional specialized training must be added.

The field of commerce and industry offers greater opportunities for the ambitious man or woman than ever before. To take full advantage of these opportunities, specialized business training, prior to entering the field is an absolute necessity.

The WINDSOR BUSINESS COLLEGE, established in 1903, while old in years, history and experience is young in ideas, methods and practices. Modern business demands up-to-date knowledge. W. B. C. can, and will, do for you what it has done for thousands of Essex County young people through the years -- train you for, and place you in, the desirable positions in commerce and industry in this and other localities.

TRAIN IN THE SCHOOL THAT WILL DO THE MOST FOR YOU!

Graciously and Wholeheartedly We Dedicate Our Yearbook

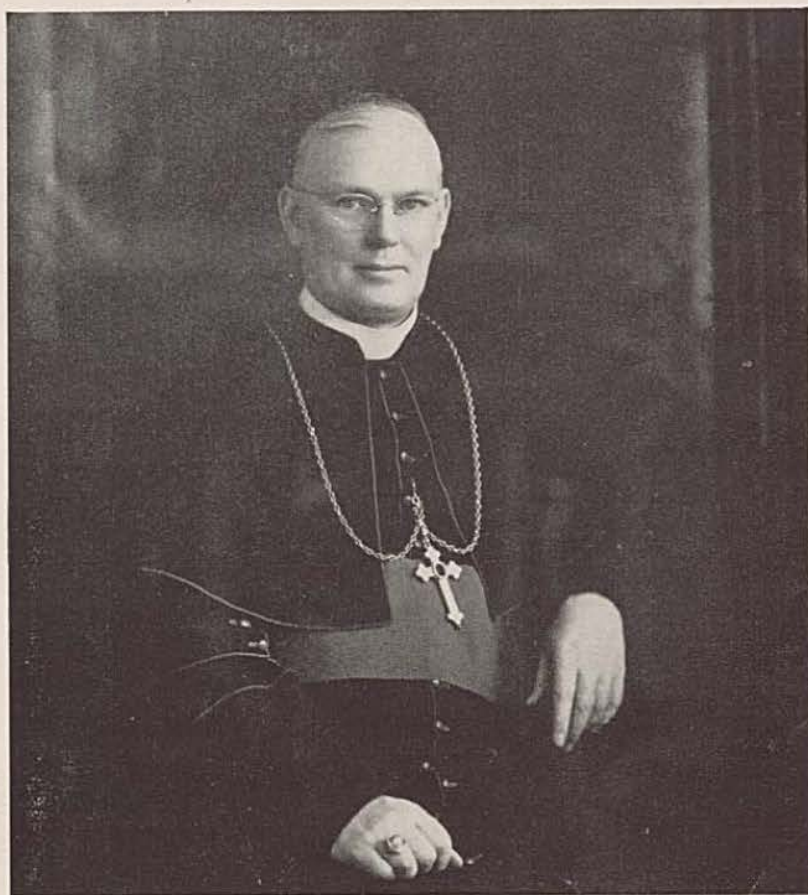

To

St. Joseph

Great and Glorious Patron of The Universal Church and of The Church in Canada

To him we offer our filial homage of praise and gratitude for his benignly powerful influence and his paternal protection of Family Life.

Ite ad Joseph

Message for St. Rose High School

Do you know that Canada was the first country in the world to have St. Joseph as its primary patron? At the request of Samuel de Champlain this unique mark of Joseph's favor was given us March 19, 1624. As the Jesuit Relations testify, our secondary patrons, the eight Canadian Martyrs fostered this devotion. The Church of their main residence at Fort Ste. Marie was dedicated to St. Joseph, whence at the Midland Shrine you see his statue in the place of honor on the High Altar jointly dedicated to him and to his loving clients the Canadian Martyrs. St. John de Breboeuf gave the name Joseph to the first Huron he baptized, a little girl of four who died shortly afterwards. The first papal document in Canada was granted in 1644 by Pope Urban VIII to St. Joseph's Church of Huronia.

1955 marks the 331st anniversary of St. Joseph's appointment as Canada's chief patron, the 85th anniversary of his nomination by Pius IX as patron of the Universal Church, and the Golden Jubilee of St. Joseph's Oratory, Montreal, which Cardinal Tisserant recently so aptly called "the world's capital of devotion to St. Joseph". May I beg you, at least during this year proclaimed by our Bishops as "Joseph's Year", to say his litany fervently every day that he may guide you to your true vocation and that, as Pius XI requested, he may crush Communism by filling all hearts with love for Jesus and Mary?

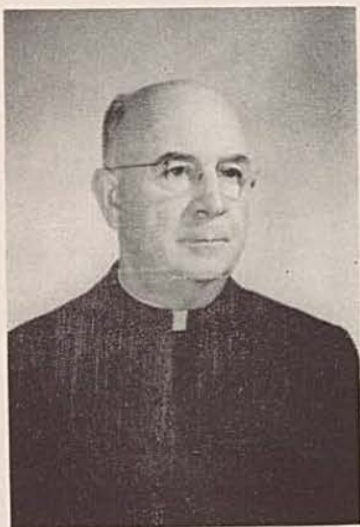

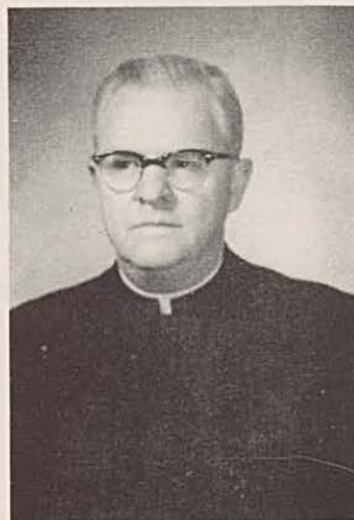

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+ John C. Cody,
Bishop of London.

Our sincere gratitude is extended to

FATHER R. A. LOWREY, C.S.B., M.C.

who has ably taken over the responsibilities of the Parish and is devoting much time making our school still more comfortable

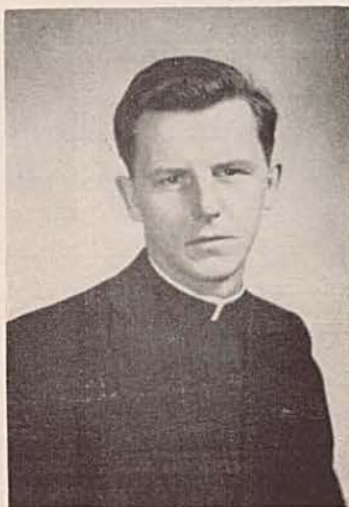

FATHER D. FORESTELL, C.S.B.

first Assistant, who zealously imparts Religious Knowledge to the High School pupils. The religion period is most instructive, interesting and stimulating.

FATHER H. NOLAN, C.S.B.

second Assistant, who refereed the football games in the fall and gave much of his time and efforts to help coach the Senior basketball team to victory. Father is also very active in promoting the Sodality Activities.

FATHER I. McRAE, C.S.B.

third Assistant, who has charge of the Squires, and devotes much time and effort to the Sunday Evening Social entertainment.

Graduation '54

Sunday, June 27, was a perfect day in every respect for the twenty-one graduates of St. Rose.

In the morning the Grads in caps and gowns marched from St. Joseph's Academy to St. John the Baptist Church for eight o'clock mass which was celebrated by Father V. Thomson, C.S.B. The junior choir under the direction of Sister M. Lucy of Jesus, sang appropriate hymns.

Breakfast was served at St. Joseph's Academy, with Father V. Thomson and Father Thomas Kelly a former graduate, presiding.

At three in the afternoon, the graduates with their attendants marched from St. Joseph's Academy to the Church where Father V. Thomson read the proclamation of honours and presented the awards as follows: Highest Average: C. Bondy, donated by the P.T.A.; Religious Knowledge: M. Bastien, donated by the Basilian Fathers; English: The Lieutenant Hayward Jones Memorial Award: M. Bornais, donated by Mr. and Mrs. G. Jones; French: P. Paquette, donated by Mr. M. Mullen; Latin: J. Reaume, donated by the C.W.L.; Mathematics: R. M. Sutts, donated by the Sisters of St.

Joseph's Academy; Science: P. Odette, donated by the Honourable S. Murray Clark; History: V. Bondy, donated by Rt. Honourable Paul Martin; English Composition: J. Goulin, donated by Mayor and Mrs. E. M. Warren; French: L. Grondin, donated by the S. S. Board; Scholarship: J. Brown, donated by St. Rose High School; Scholarship: D. Hocevar, donated by Beta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority; School Activities: D. Calzavara, donated by the K. of C.; Athletics: P. Murray, donated by Mr. J. Pouget; Athletics: G. Brush, donated by Mayor and Mrs. E. M. Warren; School Spirit: S. Bondy, donated by a friend; Algebra: H. Pillon, donated by Mr. M. Bondy.

Then the class of '54 consecrated their lives to Jesus and Mary. Reverend E. G. Hartman, C.S.B., M.A., gave a very impressive talk to the Grads telling them how to live up to their calling as soldiers of Christ.

The ceremony was completed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament given by a former graduate of St. Rose High, Rev. I. T. Kelly, C.S.R. Geraldine Hunt

The President's Message

The most impressive ceremony of the school year and by far the most important one for us, the members of the senior class, is graduation.

For twelve years we have prepared for this memorable occasion, and we eagerly anticipate its arrival. As we near our graduation day, we realize that the work we have put into these twelve school years was not wasted.

As the long awaited day approaches, our joy is tinged with sadness, because we have to leave St. Rose where we enjoyed happy days — days that will ever be filled with pleasant memories for each and all. Then, there is anxiety about the future. No matter what career we have chosen, we must strive to live up to noble ideals and principles set before us by our pastor and teachers. Every graduate feels the challenge. God grant that each may be faithful!

THE CLASS PROPHECY

Dawson, N. W. T.,
 July 19, 1975.

Mr. Ron Reaume, Instructor,
 c-o Arthur Murray Dance Studio,
 New York 10, N.Y.

Dear Ron:

I just have to write to tell you about my recent visit to our dear old town of Amherstburg on my annual thirty-day leave.

Upon reaching the outskirts of the Burg I was stunned to learn that the population had risen to over two million which I later found was due to the Interplanetary Rocket Base owned by our old friend, speedball Russ Cactelon.

Of course the first person I looked up was our old classmate, Lolly Sinasac, who is now chief mechanic at the White Rose Jetmobile Service Station. Later that evening hitting the high spots of the town, we dropped in at Canada's most famous Night Club which is now under the management of Diamond Brooker and Goldie Hovevar. Entering the dining room, we ran across two more of our old classmates, Terry Mayville and Janet Dupuis, who are now happily married, and the co-owners of the Amherstburg Scenic Railway Co. Leaving the restaurant we met another old classmate, Collier Hunt, who was a very ambitious doorman there. To top the evening off, we went to the new Multi-million Dollar Theatre under the management of Geraldine Hunt and Mae Renaud. To our amazement we were entertained by three of Hollywood's greatest stars, Peter Simone playing Tarzan, Sharon Bernard as Jane, and Dan Schindler as Boy.

I rose early the next morning and decided to attend Mass at the new St. John the Baptist Church, capacity

"25,000". I was astonished when who should walk out of the vestibule but the pastor, Father Bezaire, C.S.B., surely you remember our old friend Noah. I recognized, sitting in front of me, two pious looking nuns, who turned out to be none other than JoAnne Fitzgerald and Pat Peacock who are in charge of the altar boys there. After picking up Lolly, we hailed a jetmobile and to our surprise the driver was Lillian Mistruzzi, who lost no time in driving down to Charette's beach, the most beautiful in all Canada. Arriving at the beach I thought I saw another of our old classmates, who was surrounded by every female on the beach. I decided to investigate and found out it was Harry Plastow, who is now better known as Mister Universe. Later while watching our portable T.V., we saw a wanted-bulletin, the picture on which I recognized immediately as Gerald Deslippe, who had just broken into the biggest Jewelry Store in the Universe, owned and operated by Marie Bezaire and Mary-Ann Pouget. Upon investigation, I ran into another classmate of ours, now Constable First Class Tom Bondy of the R.C.M.P., who was also investigating the crime. With his help we were able to apprehend the culprit in a very short time. After questioning, we learned that Gerald has been down and out lately, but he would have twenty years to think over his future.

Well, I must close my letter now as I am already late for a date tonight with Joan Deslippe who, you probably know is racing old '54 Cadillacs at "Ladies' Jalopy Run-downs". I hope that you will be able to make the visit with me next year.

As always, your chum,

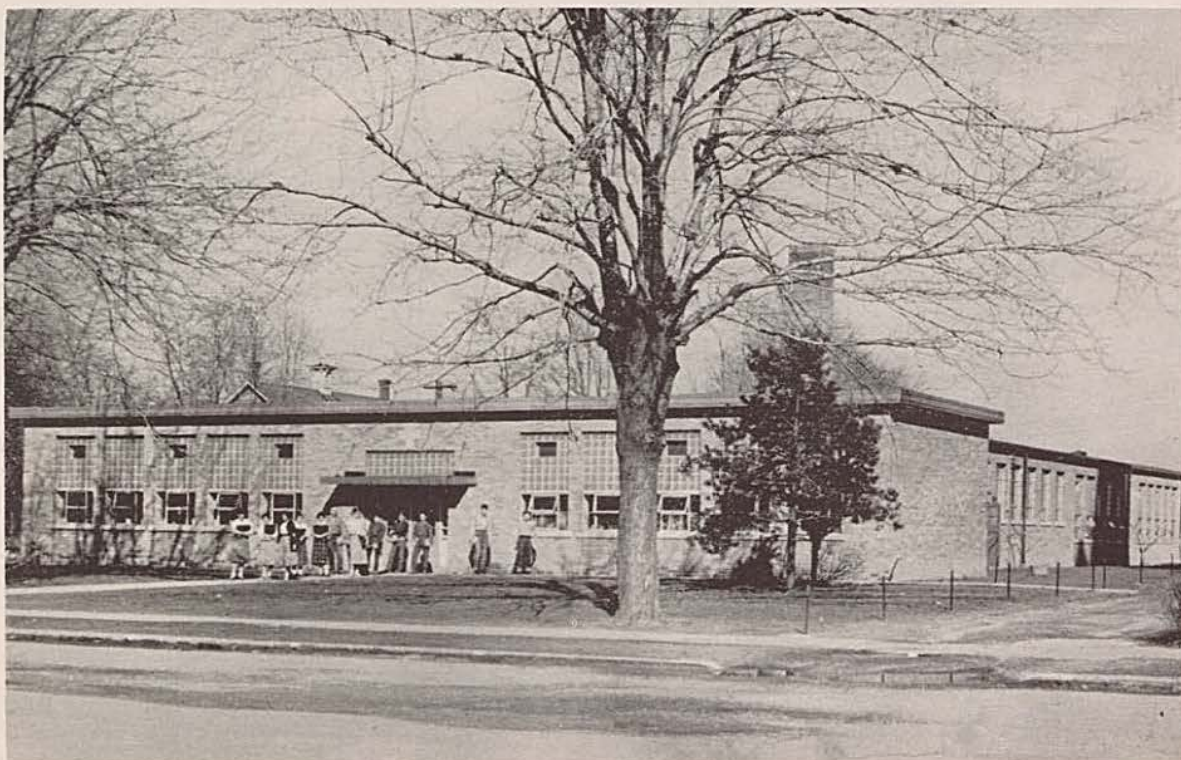

Sgt. Rex Beaudoin, R.C.M.P.

P.S.—Enclosed is a letter I recently received from Mother St. John the Baptist, our friend of grade twelve, '55 Rita Jane Warren, who is now a dentist in a juvenile reformatory in India.

THE ROSE BALL '54

The coketail preceding the Prom took place at the home of Dorothy Calzavara, one of the grads. All the graduates with their dates attended this "Pre-Prom Introduction", and enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

The Rose Ball at the Parish Hall proved to be a marvellous success. The hall, decorated with pastel streamers and clusters of red roses, was very attractive. The Patrons were Mayor and Mrs. E. M. Warren, Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Ladouceur and Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Paquette. Miss Mary-Ann Beneteau, Miss Mary-Jane Beneteau of River Canard, and Mr. Bob Clark acted as judges. Mr. Edward Lalonge was Master of Ceremonies. The elected Queen, Miss Gay Brush, attended by Mr. Terry Mayville, looked charming in a white ankle length gown with two baby orchids on her right shoulder. She was crowned with a tiara of red roses by the Queen of '53, Miss Edith Kelly.

The graduates of '54 wish the graduates of '55 continued success in all their undertakings. May Our Lord and Our Lady bless them throughout the coming years!

Grade XIA Class Notes

Harvey Beneteau has lots of spark,
Because he is our own school pool shark.

Pat Warren always in after four,
Thinks he just can't learn anymore.

Betty Deneau, seen near and far,
Is always saying, "Pop, may I have the car?"

Wayne Hunt who is always in trouble,
At recess is out on the double.

Freda Christl, please help her Lord,
For some day she might wreck that Ford.

Gordie Thrasher, who is tall and thin,
When he goes to Bill's, is bound to be fished in.

Lawrence Cote in French is never slow,
Why he was moved we do not know.

Joe Bondy, mamma's little boy,
Sits in school and says "Ship A'hoy".

What a dreamer is our John Bondy,
We're sure there's not another in Essex County.

Joyce Grondin always on the beam,
Is the girl in every boy's dream.

Jim Sutton, head of the Squires,
When he comes home late, he heads the liars.

Jerry Bornais, a mental wreck,
In school is always getting heck.

Eddie Curtis, a fish in the pool,
Is always at Bill's after school.

Mary Sauro who talks so low,
But in her work is never slow.

Theresa Simone who comes on the bus,
When doing her homework never makes a fuss.

Armand Deluca, the Italian lad,
When moved away from Betty Ann, sure got mad.

Elso Pontini who sits in the middle of the class,
Is always dreaming about that McGregor lass.

John Sunderland, tall and nice,
Is the class scholar in disguise.

Nancy Amlin who likes to cheer,
When she laughs, she sheds a tear.

Marilyn Mayville with dyed red hair,
When teased by Wayne goes up in the air.

Charlie McGee, it's too tough to make a rhyme,
Because he is good all the time.

Marilyn Dube whose heart is blue,
Would like to join the Navy too.

Mary-Ann Parker who is always late,
Gives the excuse "I'm too pooped to participate."

Sally Beneteau who is on the ball,
At ping-pong shall beat them all.

Jannette Renaud who is so sweet,
Some day will sweep Lawrence off his feet.

Sally Kelly who sits in school,
Is always asking Chick to teach her to play pool.

Katherine Tiefenbach, our basketball star,
Would like to take a ride in Harvey's car.

Anne Stacyzyn, our Algebra whiz,
When winked at by Joe doesn't even fizz.

Wesley McCauley does not make too much fuss,
When he misses the four o'clock bus.

Bob Fitzmaurice, not very tall,
Is our star in basketball.

Grade XIB Class Notes

Mary Kitka, short and sweet,
Sits in class, in the very front seat.
June Souigny, always perplexed,
Until she gets a look at Rex.
Reverly Wigle, cute as a button,
Surely goes for Jimmy Sutton.
Johnny Fryer, a cute little guy,
With all the girls is really shy.
Annette Beneteau, clown of the class,
Flips her lid when a boy goes past.
Barbara Pettypiece, clever and keen,
Never sits in school to dream.
Billy Gibb, a real doll,
With all the girls is on the ball.
The boy we all call the teacher's pet
Is that curly-haired boy called Jack Ouellette.
Pat Bondy, who's always in Bill's,
Looks as if he takes sleeping pills.
John Yankovich, in his quest for knowledge,
Plans to attend Assumption College.
Marjorie Pouget, full of bliss,
Attends classes without a miss.
Jim Plastow, with freckles few,
When it comes to Algebra is in a stew.
Antoine Beaudoin, an intelligent lad,
Does his work without being sad.
Kay Duby — an actress in dream,
Longs to appear on the Hollywood screen.
Mary Jane Richards, a girl quite lame,
Used the kids instead of a cane.
Miss Rose Walach, whom no one hates,
Among the boys really rates.

Bob Mayville really likes school,
But just enough to stay and play pool.
Marilyn Bondy, often at the blackboard,
Just blacks out when she sees Gord.
A real nice girl is Sheila Finn;
She greets all with a friendly grin.
Arlene Dehetre, with curls so long,
With all the boys really gets along.
Shirley Dufour, new to the school,
Tries to obey the golden rule.
Patsy Marshall, full of pep,
When playing basketball is really "hep".
Jo-Ann Fitzmaurice, what a girl;
Leads the class in a merry whirl.
Ann Bingham, who lives on Brunner,
Wishes that school would dismiss sooner.
Nancy Dube, a girl quite bright,
Goes to Socials each Sunday night.
Lou Ann Sinasac took a glance,
And ended up at the Squire's dance.
Pat Pilon, though often at home,
In History class still likes to roam.
Pat Spearing, on the basketball team,
On the Canadian Navy ever does beam.
Betty Dufour, a lover of Spearmint gum,
Stays often at home to help her mom.
Catherine Dornan, who likes to plan,
Will always give you a helping hand.
Sue LaLonge is quick to cheer,
When the boys take her out for a ginger-beer.

Mary-lou, a cheerful miss,
 Is our favourite organist.
 Maureen Helfrich, our blue-eyed blond,
 Of her horse she sure is fond.
 Gabriel Rosati, our Italian boy,
 To all the girls he's the real m'coy.
 Frank Fox, our red-haired lad,
 Is always trying to make Sir mad.
 Joan Deslippe often discusses
 All the boys on whom she has crushes.
 There is a boy named Tom Brown,
 When there is trouble, he's around.
 Irene Bastien, who works at Boussey's,
 Of school she is not very fussy.
 Jim Reaume, tall and thin,
 When it comes to study, he sure is dim.
 Pat Thrasher is quite the kid,
 When she sees Tom she flips her lid.
 Julie Ann Haner, who is always late,
 Always has fun with George on a date.
 Penny Peters is quite a doll,
 When it comes to Frank, she's on the ball.
 Courtlyn Meloche, who rides the bus,
 At the back of the room he makes quite a fuss.
 Jerry Musyj, who doesn't like school,
 Is often found at Bill's, playing pool.
 Ronnie Brooks, nicknamed Speedy,
 Every morning eats his Wheaties.
 Pierre Andre with his eyes so bright,
 Sir says should stay home and study at night.
 Wayne Dornan, whom we all know,
 When it comes to work is very slow.
 Beverley Schindler, four feet eight,
 With Bobby R. she sure does rate.

Donna Pouget who is always chewing gum,
 Her 100 lines she does not shun.
 Larry Gardiner, our star in basket ball,
 Is a friend to all.
 Donna Sauro, the brain of the class,
 In June she is sure to pass.
 Gloria Beaudoin, in the front seat sits,
 Is forever taking laughing fits.
 Harold Shaw is told every day,
 On the team he cannot play.
 Peter Reid "So eager to learn",
 Is always ready to do a good turn.
 Hurrah for Annette Bornais when comes the day,
 She can go through a period without a say.
 Donald Cote, our shy lad,
 In the back of the room is sometimes bad.
 Larry Shaw is always in gloom,
 Because he sits at the front of the room.
 Francis Charette is quite the boy,
 When he gets in trouble he jumps for joy.
 Lynne Ladouceur is a real good sport,
 When it comes to cheering in the basketball court.
 Isabelle Renaud, what a lass!
 Is always chewing gum in class.
 Amy Adams to St. John goes,
 Often wishes she went to St. Rose.
 Jane Taylor just can't keep quiet,
 When Sir's not looking she starts a riot.
 Joyce Trembley, new this year,
 In basketball no one will jeer.
 Nina Kirkaldy from the S.K.D.,
 In class she is a busy bee.

In playing pool is quite a fish.
Albert Rocheleau, a Frenchman is he,
Is as quiet as can be.

Garnet Meloche, not so tall,
As class president, a friend to all.
Ronnie Meloche with dark wavy hair,
When it comes to girls his luck is more than fair.

Steve Bastien of all the folks,
Is really good at telling jokes.

Dick Bondy who rides the bus,
Over him the girls make a fuss.

Stanley McCauley, who isn't shy,
Some day, Sir will say Bye-Bye.

Jim Curtis, a boy of grade nine,
When found chewing gum has to write lines.

Denis, Pilon, when he misses school,
He's found at Bill's playing pool.

Gerry Fox, with his red hair,
We all rate him pretty fair.

Ronnie Burns, a smart young lad,
When it comes to play, never gets mad.

Kenny Grondin, nicknamed Cookie,
We hope he doesn't become a bookie.

Charles Mailloux, tall and straight,
Rides the bus and never is late.

Gene Reaume, big and tall,
Shows his might in basketball.

Pat Pouget, a smart young man,
When it comes to basketball has many fans.

Dick Beaudoin, a French boy we say,
During school is trying to play.

Ronnie Robinson who sits near the board,
Never leaves the teacher bored.

Phyllis Milligan who is with us no more,
Makes school at times seem like a bore.

Gay Brush, coach of the Senior Girls' basketball team.

The Senior Girls' Basketball

The fast and aggressive playing of the senior girls secured for them the honours of first place in their own league and a berth in the final championship play-offs which they lost by one basket to Riverside at Leamington.

Under the direction of their coach, Gay Brush, and under the management of Leonard Fox, the guards Joan Deslippe, Sally Beneteau, Bernadette Thompson, Ann Bingham, Jane Warren, Katherine Tiefenbach, Catherine Dornan did a tremendous job with rebounds and ball-handling. This aided the forwards, Sharon Bernard, Lolly Sinasac, Vicky Hocevar and Jane Taylor. Penny Peters whose sharpshooting obtained ample baskets for the team provided a remarkable string of victories, which is unrivaled by any previous Senior Girls' Team.

The Senior boys, coached by Father Nolan and managed by Mr. Stefani, had a very good season this year with eleven wins and four losses. The high flying Saints with their fine team play won the Essex County A. and B. Championship by defeating Essex and Leamington respectively. Entering the W.O.S.S.A. playoffs, the Saints defeated Ridgetown, the Kent County champions, 103 to 76, in a home and home total point series in the quarter finals, but lost to St. Thomas in the semi-finals in London, 32 to 28. The Saints finished the season by defeating Exeter in the consolation game 42 to 40.

The boys on the team wish to thank Father Nolan for his skilful coaching, for without it we would not have won the County Championship. Next, we wish to thank Mr. Stefani for all the work and time in arranging practices and games. We also want to thank the score and time keepers for their good work. Last, but not least, we thank the fans for their wonderful support and encouragement throughout the season. We really appreciated such wonderful co-operation.

The Junior boys with their coach, Paul Murray, had a fair season coming up third in their division. Those meriting the name of first stringers were L. Gardiner, with an average of 7.4 a game, a fine player who, with J. Fryer, sparked the team to their best performances all season. Fryer had an average of 7.1 per game. P. Reid, an average of 7.1, and F. Fox, average 4.1, literally controlled the backboards. Last, but not least, comes H. Shaw, averaging 5 points per game. Second stringers were B. Gibb, J. Bornais, P. Bernard, E. Pontini and A. DeLuca. The team wishes to express their thanks to Paul Murray for his brilliant coaching.

Highlights of the Year

- Sept. 5 — After enjoying their vacations the pupils of St. Rose returned to Sister M. John Berchmans, Sister M. Eugene of Rome, and their new teacher, Sister M. Patrick-Joseph.
- Sept. 17 — The students chose Vicky Hocevar as president of the Student Council.
- Sept. 14-16 — The Y.C.S. study-days at Oxley were represented by four girls from St. Rose. They were Sally Kelly, Pat Spearling, Vicky Hocevar and Jo-Anne Fitzgerald.
- Oct. 14 — W.O.S.S.A. Track Meet was held at Leamington. Although St. Rose got few points, all enjoyed themselves.
- Oct. 29 — The cast for the "Eager Miss Beaver", the school play, was chosen and the students began to practice immediately.
- Nov. 27 — "The Eager Miss Beaver" was effectively presented for the parents and friends of the students at the General Amherst High School Auditorium. Following the play a party was held at the home of Joan Deslippe.
- Dec. 30 — The grade twelve students enjoyed a New Year's Eve party sponsored by Janet Dupuis.
- Jan. 3 — The pupils returned to school after a much enjoyed holiday.
- Jan. 7 — St. Rose showed wonderful team work in the opening games of the W.O.S.S.A. tournament.
- Jan. 21 — St. Rose scored a four game victory over Amherst. A dance was held at the Parish Hall after the game.
- Jan. 28 — Both girls and boys waited anxiously for the arrival of the photographers who were to take the graduation pictures.
- Feb. 11 — St. Rose played Amherst in a second game of the league. The Sr. and Jr. girls both scored victory over their opponents, but the boys were less successful. A dance was held in the Amherst Auditorium and was enjoyed by both students and players.
- Feb. 12 — A dance sponsored by the Student Council was held at the Parish Hall.
- Feb. 19 — St. Rose Sr. girls travelled to Leamington to compete in the basketball tournament. However, the girls were not successful in defeating Riverside. The Sr. boys who played at Assumption were more successful and scored victories over Riverside and Essex.
- Feb. 22 — The students of grade twelve enjoyed a pre-Lenten party, at which Bunco was played, all prizes being donated by Sister John.
- Feb. 25 — The Sr. boys travelled to Leamington and won the game.
- Mar. 2 — St. Rose played Leamington at Amherst and won by forfeit.
- Mar. 5 — The Sr. boys went to Ridgetown and were successful once again.
- Mar. 8 — The Sr. boys were victorious again when they played Ridgetown at home.
- Mar. 12 — The Sr. boys went to London for the Basketball Tournament. They lost to St. Thomas but won over Exeter. They placed third in their division.
- Mar. 18 — Six girls of grade twelve made a retreat at St. Mary's Academy.
- Mar. 27 - April 1 — The Music Pupils of St. Joseph's Academy achieved extraordinary success at the Windsor Music Festival, carrying away twenty-one prizes.

The St. Rose Commencement

On November 27, the students of St. Rose gave their very large audience a very enjoyable evening. Since 1954 had been the Marion Year, in honour of Mary, the Mother of God, the first part of the program paid a loving tribute to Her.

While the High School girls in their blue satin capes sang "The Queen Enters Heaven," and "Ave Maria", a revolving light sent several coloured rays over a painting of the Virgin which seemed to rest on clouds. A "Poem to Mary" was recited by the Misses Rita Jane Warren, Theresa Charette and Mary-Ann Pouget. Then Harry Plastow announced the awards for Grades IX, X and XI of the scholastic year 1953 to 1954. Rev. R. E. Lowry, C.S.B., presented the awards. The second part of the program consisted of the three-act comedy "The Eager Miss Beaver." Bunny Beaver (Victoria Hovevar) certainly harassed the life out of Harland (Ronnie Reaume). The Faceless Fiend (Gerald Deslippe) haunted the house but was caught at the end. The Lady Scarecrow (Russ Cantelon) clad in black from head to toe took to stalking around the premises. These spooky episodes brought terror to Hank Peters (Rex Beaudoin), the coloured gardener and to Canasta Brown (Lolly Sinasac), the coloured cook, and also to Mrs. Upshaw (Janet Dupuis), who almost left her beautiful home, especially after being snubbed by Beasley Scudder (Bob Brooker). Consternation reigned supreme when the mad barber (Terry Mayville) with a palsied hand tried to give everybody a close shave. Finally Bunny solved the mysterious goings-ons — the fortune-hunting Miss Verbena Van Wick (Jo-Anne Fitzgerald) and her brother Dicky (Russ Cantelon), the treasure-hunting Tille Toothacre (Sharon Bernard) and her nephew Harol (The Faceless Fiend); Doreen (Joan Deslippe) with her Bob White (Terry Mayville).

Between acts one and two, Miss Penny Peters and Miss Mary Lou Ouellette played a duet "Christmas Medley."

At the end of act two Mrs. Judith Ross Hazen sang a solo followed by an encore.

After the play, Grade XII students and their escorts had a very enjoyable evening at Miss Joan Deslippe's home.

The Last Will and Testament

We, the class of '55, being of sound mind and body, do will to the class of '56 the following:

Joan Deslippe leaves her front seat to all the future somnambulists.

Janet Dupuis leaves her ability of persuading Sister John in giving free periods.

Sharon Bernard leaves her wardrobe to all the hopeless dreamers of '56.

Russell Cantelon leaves his Romantic Episodes to the shy freshmen.

Terry Mayville wills his razor to a certain Bob Fitzmaurice.

Marie Bezaire leaves her French notes to non-Frenchmen.

Liliana Mistruzzi leaves her knowledge of latin to Gordon Thrasher.

Roger Bezaire wills his long legs to all the sport-minded pupils of '56.

Lolly Sinasac leaves her popularity to the social butterfly of '56.

Collier Hunt leaves his ability of talking to all those who like to chatter.

Geraldine Hunt leaves a large box of Kleenex to all the sneezers.

Ronnie Reaume wills his music ability to the jazz players.

Mae Renaud leaves her curly hair to Annette Beneteau.

Bob Brooker leaves his red hair to the unfortunate brunettes of '56.

Mary-Ann Pouget wills her deductions to the geometry enthusiasts.

Peter Simone leaves his muscular appearance to the weaklings of '56.

Jo-Anne Fitzgerald leaves her sweet disposition to the sour pussies of '56.

Rex Beaudoin leaves his collection of joke books to all killjoys.

Patrica Peacock leaves her S.W.A. bus tickets to all who like to walk.

Gerald Deslippe leaves his empty pack of cigarettes to the bums.

Rita-Jane Warren leaves her Spanish book to non-Latin lovers.

Harry Plastow leaves his knowledge of forecasting his colds to come.

Vicky Hovevar leaves the Y.C.S. books to next year's representative.

Theresa Charette leaves her long hair to those with boyish bobs.

Dan Schindler leaves the keys of his car to all the hotrod drivers.

Poem

St. Rose

Our school brings back fond memories of old,
Our ancestors to us have told
Of the times that they have had
In the rooms of good old St. Rose.
Some say that soon St. Rose
Will be crumbling of old age,
But to us it will always be a memory
Of all the good times it has displayed.
Just think! if the walls could talk
The tales they'd have to tell,
And when our story's ended,
And we have turned the last pages of the book,
Think of all the faces that will have
That sad and forlorn look.
Now when the former pupils go by,
They stand in front of St. Rose and sigh —
Wishing they were back again,
Repeating their lessons in dear old St. Rose High.

EXAMS

The melancholy days have come,
The saddest of the year,
When all the girls must settle down
To books — exams are here.
Oh dreaded word, oh blighter thou,
Of all our girlish glow.
You seem to take unholy joy
In seeing us laid low,
We work and slave from morn 'til eve,
In cramming brains so slow
And then our teachers, so ingrate
Seek facts we do not know.

Never before has Canada offered such a wealth of opportunity to young people planning their careers. The mighty development of our country—with its teeming resources, its expanding industries, its growing importance in world affairs—has pushed back our horizons and opened up brand new fields of enterprise for all Canadian youth.

With the courage and skill and initiative to meet the challenge, there are no limits to your future prospects. Whatever your choice of career, you can know that the threshold on which you stand now is truly a . . .

doorway to opportunity
